Environmental Policy

In meeting our responsibility with regards to protecting the environment and our aim in achieving excellence in providing print services, Emmerson Press will manage our activities that have an impact on the environment and will promote environmental sustainability, comply fully with environmental legislation and the requirements of ISO14001, apply approved codes of practice, conserve natural resources and prevent environmental pollution.

Emmerson Press recognises the need to function all year round in a manner which avoid any harmful environmental impact.

To achieve a minimal impact on the environment, objectives and targets are set and reviewed annually and a culture of continual improvement in environmental performance is actively promoted.
